

Whirlwind Project

Whirlwind Project gathers people of many faiths and traditions to explore sacred stories through music, dialogue and the arts, fostering mutual respect and understanding in our community.

www.whirlwindproject.org

Calligraphy and Sacred Manuscript Exhibit

Spurlock Museum
April 21, 10–4
April 22, noon–4

Calligraphy Demonstration

April 22, 1–4

Deadline

April 12

A Call for Calligraphy

Whirlwind Project will present a Calligraphy and Sacred Manuscript Exhibit with Boneyard Arts Festival at the Spurlock Museum, Saturday, April 21 from 10–4 and Sunday, April 22 from noon–4.

For the exhibit, Whirlwind Project seeks loans of printed and illustrated calligraphy manuscripts. Individuals and organizations are invited to submit up to four sacred manuscripts or calligraphy samples, plus additional power point slides for an ongoing slide show to be displayed during the exhibit.

Each item should be accompanied by a typewritten explanation, in English, as to the subject matter and its purpose. A full translation of each item is welcome but not essential.

In addition, calligraphers from all communities, societies and cultures are invited to participate in the calligraphy demonstration, Sunday, April 22, 1–4 PM. Calligraphers may be asked to write something on request, perhaps the name of the visitor or of their loved one. Calligraphers may also do calligraphy of their own choice during the demonstration.

To offer printed or illustrated manuscripts for loan, please contact Rosalind Weinberg, who will curate the exhibit, and if necessary, prepare items for exhibit. Items should be delivered to Rosalind's studio, Dragonfly Press, 2108 S. Vine Street in southeast Urbana. Please contact her at rfweinberg@insightbb.com or 367-8931 to arrange delivery or pick-up.

To offer slides of additional calligraphy samples, or to participate in the calligraphy demonstration, please contact Rizwan Uddin rizwan@uiuc.edu. A CD containing the power point slides can be mailed to him at: 2213 S. Lynn St, Urbana, IL 61801.

Deadline: Please deliver manuscripts or slides between April 6 and April 12, 2007. Items may be picked up at the Spurlock Museum at the close of the exhibit: Sunday, April 22 at 4 PM.

For more information, email info@whirlwindproject.org or call 217-328-1641.